Through The Years

The Betas take you through the years,
Let's stroll down Memory Lane
And take a glimpse of High School days,
And how we played the game.

So, Fellow Students of Holland High,
Another year is gone.
We each have had a task to do,
My, how the time has flown!

The Freshman's life is an endless daze,
Each moment is sheer delight,
At last they have attained a goal
And entered High School overnight.

The Sophomore's life is filled with glee,
Each day is a new experience
Even though many times the going is rough,
They succeed by having endurance.

The Junior's learn that life is fun
Their dreams are soon to be;
Their guiding light is growing bright
Their hopes becoming reality.

The Senior's with their knowing ways,
Hold a shining star in their hands.
Their dreams at last have burst ablaze.
A future before them proudly stands.

All through the years, in paths unknown,
We found, destroyed, rebuilt our dreams.
Now looking back over the years gone by,
We understand what High School means.

Its laughter, happiness, tears, and pain,
With many a resounding thrill,
These things will always remain with us
As we fondly look back at this "Windmill."

Each student in these hallowed halls,
Joined in the daily task
Each gave the very best he had.
Together we built, and built to last.

So cherish this annual throughout the years,
And return to it many a time
Remembering teachers and class mates,
With a fondness, deep and kind.

In Memoriam

Wesley Darrell Hedgebeth, Jr.
Born February 9, 1948
Died July 2, 1960

Robert Wilkerson Holland, Jr.
Born August 27, 1948
Died December 14, 1959

I love to think of my little children whom God has called to himself as away at school-at the best school in the universe, under the best teachers, learning the best things, in the best possible manner.

-Bossuet

We Honor

To one who is recognized for her patience and understanding, and for possessing a certain invaluable ability to lift a student to the stature of a human being complete with thoughts, ideas, and problems. Then, through her help these thoughts and ideas are steered into proper channels and nurtured to fulfillment causing most problems to vanish.

As sponsor of the Junior Class, teacher of English and French, she has obtained the love and respect of all students. It is through her untiring work and cooperation that the highlight function, the Junior-Senior Prom, is carried on so smoothly each year at our school.

In recognition for outstanding work done for Holland High School and her devoted service to students, The Beta Club proudly dedicates this 1961 edition of the Windmill to Mrs. Lula M. Piland.

Teachers take a coffee break.

Crazy mixed-up kids!

1. Cecil, is your little sister on?
2. Pete makes a home run the hard way.
3. Too many cooks spoil the broth.
4. E-E-E-E! Isn't he a living doll!
5. Why, Jeff!
6. Don't you do it!
7. He went that-a-way, Judy.
8. A brain - relaxing.
9. After the game was over.
10. Vanity, thy name is Pickard!

11. Don't look, Lucy Jean, but something's following you.
12. My word, Gary!
13. What do you think I said!
14. Don't leave us, Geraldine.
15. No lunch - living on love.
16. And so I told her -
17. Mrs. Eubank with a flat-top.
18. David and Doll.
19. Mary goes yakety-yak.
